CODE OF CONDUCT

As a member of the Costume Alliance, you act as an ambassador of our organization. Because of this important role, we expect members to:

- Participate in events, monthly meetings, and ongoing development opportunities.
- Work within the boundaries of membership while supporting the vision, mission and policies outlined by our organization.
- Act as an ambassador of the Costume Alliance by taking ownership for actions and decisions made while volunteering at any officially sanctioned Costume Alliance event.
- Approach your volunteer assignment as a professional commitment.
- Engage in discussions with members and administration in order to express your comments, suggestions, or concerns.
- Promote a team spirit by respecting differences in people, valuing diversity of opinion and working with others to achieve the goals of our organization.
- Value the importance of providing exceptional quality service to our patrons that is second-to-none by being friendly, informed and respectful.
- The use of drugs or alcohol at any event is strictly prohibited.
- All materials or information gained in connection with the Costume Alliance remains the property of the Costume Alliance.
- Monies or property of the Costume Alliance will not be used for personal gain.
- Any questions from the media will be directed to Costume Alliance Administration. If they are not available; information will be taken down and provided to Council that the media may be contacted at a later date.

This Code of Conduct, Rules, and Guidelines of the Costume Alliance are subject to change. Any changes to the Code of Conduct, Rules and Guidelines will be presented and updated and distributed to membership upon approval by the Administration.
